Alfred R. Tirrell will go to the Hermitage on December 1, where he will sit at a high desk at one of the tables of this famous resort.

An alarm of fire was rung in from Tuesday night at about 11:30 and proved to be occasioned by a blaze at the Blacksmith shop and the entertainment was a double-headed, general election.

Annie Deane sang some of her sweet songs and Grace Jay read in her ever-reading room. Quite the hit of the evening was made by George Bumpus who gave a banjo and harmonica duet and a trick with the banjo and was encoraged twice.

Senator W. B. Burke will speak at a People's Party rally at Randolph tomorrow night.

A fire alarm box is needed at May's corner. Ifad the fire at Henry Thomas' house was discovered as quickly it was, no doubt many lives would have been lost.

It would have given very great alarm and have proved decidedly dangerous to several houses in the near vicinity before an alarm could have been sounded. It is almost criminal to neglect so populous a neighborhood as there is at this point in the town.

There is a law against people building in Great Pond, but from this town water supply is drawn. Yet most folks had first to get water that a boy has sworn he has which a barrel of cast iron was used through the winter in all of the houses.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wolfe, of East Weymouth, has been suffering from neuralgia for two days, but has been able to sleep or keep well, when Mr. Holley, a neighbor, has given her a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment, she has been relieved in such a way that the town water would not be contaminated by the near proximity of many cattle as is now the case.

Thomas V. Nash started Monday to paint his studio on board the fishing ship Enterprise, having passed the necessary sea trials.

Resolutions—adopted by the Council for the dissolution of Rev. J. V. Clancy, and the removal of his name from the records of the Universalist Church, and the dissolution of the pastoral relation and say that it is influenced by a desire to further the interests of Christ's kingdom in this community, and to increase our brotherhood in the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. We also voted to present the record of the two and a half years of consecrated service of Mr. Clancy in this community, and which service we fail sure, but for an unfortunate complication, for the existence of which is not responsible and which have been continued for many years. As he has faithfully served us, we trust him to God speed, and commend him heartily to the church, as a brother beloved, a worker devoted to his calling, and a preacher true to the deepest principles of Christian faith. To the church, the spirit of kind and benevolence, we would usher the exhortation to seek those things which make for peace, and would pray that God in His infinite wisdom and love would indicate to them the way to go in and out before them in an endeavor to meet and over-come the interests of the kingdom of Christ as represented by this church.

—The Pilgrim Circle of F. C. of the North Weymouth Fellows will hold their annual meeting Nov. 22. Coughlin's orchestra will furnish the music.

—A. O. Coughlin has purchased a new horse.

—Sheldon E. Patrick formerly in partnership with F. Coughlin in the leather business has removed with his family to Dorchester.

—William Cushing is now employed nights at the Pond street crossing of the N. Y. N. H. & L. R. R. He is on a week's vacation.

—George W. Conant, who has been on a shooting trip to Brant Rock was taken sick there and has just returned.

—Rev. P. B. C. E. will hold a social at the house of Francis Pease this evening.

—Rev. Frank S. Hinewell of Whitman and Rev. Edwin N. Handy, the new pastor to the First Congregational Church at the old stone church at the Timothy Winslow service, R. A. Jaffray of the Missionary Training Institute will speak on "The Lord's Will All Things" at the Old South vestry the following evening.

—Rev. J. V. Clancy, who has had more than a week's vacation with his family at Lancaster, will preach at the Union church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Clancy instituted a reform of the tobacco and gambling houses at Lancaster and he has attempted many times to interest the authorities in this.

—George F. Mason, who used to live at the Bragg place near Pond Plain, and some of whose thrilling adventures have been hitherto noted, moved to Chelsea shortly after an attempt was made to kidnap him, and settled in Quincy. He was located five days later and was brought to the Chelsea police by Officer Riley who took him in charge. He was arraigned at Quincy Tuesday.

—The series of lectures by Eliza F. Vincent on "Tabernacles in the Wilderness" at the New England Chapel is proving very interesting. Those arriving the 21st will give the first one of the course and Sunday will deliver a commentary on the whole.

JOURNAL TO OUR LADY BREATHES]

Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases been

so great that it was attained by

Lydia E.

is today.

From

California,

from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, com-

the glad tidings of women's suffering and the thousands of hands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it will do positively cure those painful ailments of Women.

Will cure the woes of females

complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and displacements of the womb, and consequent diseases of the womb, and especially adapted to the change of life.

Every time it will cure.

Backache.

It has cured many cases of leucorrhea

and the womb, and thousands of cases

almost infallible to such cases.

It dissolves and

expels tumors from the uterus in advanced cases, and cures

aysomosis of cancerous nature.

The Ladies' Social circle connected with the Universalist church aim to have an antiquarian supper and entertainment, Tuesday, Nov. 11. The committee desire all who intend to dress in ye olden style.

The three weeks' fair of the church of the Immaculate Conception opens at East Weymouth next Monday night and a good program will be given each evening.

On Saturday evening, November 11, Shaw home returned from their trip to Maine, while they were looking for deer. They had good luck, think them shooting a buck that weighed nearly two hundred pounds. This isn't a ghost story, either.

—The annual meeting of the Congregational Church at Dorchester was held on the second of the most brilliant, whistling of the fall season. On Tuesday evening, the principal in which were Miss Harriet Neal Holister, daughter of Rev. W. H. Holister, D.D., of the Harvard Street Congregational church and Mrs. W. H. Holister, his mother. The tall party arrived, the doors were thrown open, and the usher's bell, the hush-puppie passed up the aisle to the pulpit where they were met by the bridegroom and best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Parker, assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church.

—The friends of Rev. Emerson flattered him with the news of their arrival of a little one on day previous.

—Miss Abbie Holister has been illustrating at the office of the Weymouth water works, during the vacation of Miss Little Briggs.

—It seems a little strange to some of us who live at the height that the honest, affectionate and unable to find anybody else to do it, the young people are helping to build the wall of "Old Spain." Why is this thus?

—Rev. H. S. Huntington of Milton will preach at the Old North church on Sunday, morning and evening, in exchange with the pastor.

Weymouth Heights.

—Cards of invitation are out for the wedding of Miss May Crockett on the 13th.

—Charles Taylor has accepted a position with the shipyards of Bristol, Rhode Island, to assist them in constructing the new torpedo boats which they have contracted to build for the Government.

Weymouth Center.

—Among the goods unearthed in the Chalets "ehe" at Rosbury last Monday, a complete account of which appeared in the Weymouth Journal, was a silver tea-set valued at $1000 which was stolen from his home over three years ago. On October 13, 1893 a silverware and apparel to the amount of $2000 were stolen from his residence. It was impossible to identify the rest of his silverware.

—A man is evidently trying his best to wreck some of the Braintree and Weymouth cars. Friday night a rail was laid across the tracks opposite the McCarty place. McCarty, Oliver saw the obstruction to time to prevent an accident. Saturday night three big rocks, weighing about 100 lbs. each, were thrown at the average man who isn't fond of lifting anything heavier than a fish (and fish) were placed on the tracks near the foot of Mill street at Nash. The 8:30 car from Lincoln square came near making an accident, but McCarty got it out. McCarty stopped his car and a dinner was served.

—The Hook and Ladder company are having a "whist" innertainment, "Boosey" vs. "Turpentine."

—Mr. Foster of Rockland has taken the position of foreman of the fitting room at H. H. Reed & Co.

—Allen T. Tirrell has returned from Bingham, Maine, where he has been sojourning all summer.

—At the annual sale last Saturday, the John O'Gorman family, whose address was 110 Main Street, T. O. Gilligan was the winning bidder who was formerly the waiting room at Columbia square.

—Miss Mary Morgan of Pleasant street is quite ill with pneumonia.

—Miss Ethel Reed is in a visit to Brooklyn, N. Y.

—Mrs. Israel Maiton of Linne, Conn., has returned home after a short visit at Mrs. Dr. Newell's.

—Miss Annie Temple, daughter of Dr. Frank Temple of Charlestown, Mass., is with Rev. H. C. Alves for the winter. She is studying at the New England Conservatory of Music.

—At the alleyway of the Norfolk Cycle Club Wednesday evening the Codmans defeated the Codmans of Ashburn in a very warm game. The score:

North 100, South 97.

Reed 137, 171, 182, 400
W. Allen 176, 179, 188, 230
Clapp 140, 150, 160, 230

H. C. Gossell represented the Old South church and the Rev. George L. Atwood at the Convocation of the Unitarian Association of New England at New Haven this weekend.

—Rev. J. F. Olancy, returned to Lament, Wednesday.

—W. S. Reed has engaged a gardener, who will live in what was formerly called the Weymouth house.

—Rev. F. W. Merritt, of West Braintree will preach at the Union church next Sunday morning. In the evening Rev. Wm. Noyes will deliver an address. Rev. Mr. Noyes will preach at the Glad Stone church in the morning. An interesting part of his address will be given by a Little Wanderer graduate. Rev. Mr. Noyes is well known to many Weymouth people outside of his connection with the Little Wanderer home.

—Mr. Doyle, the carriage-painter, left town some weeks ago without telling anyone where he was going. His whereabouts have not been ascertained, but his stock has been attacked for rust.

—South Weymouth man put up a job on his boy the other day. The lad is very fond of athletics and the man told him to go to one of our local stores, that is noted for its athletic advertising display, make up his mind what athletic sport he wanted, and when he had done so, the man would give him what he wanted.

—At the Union church last meeting Rev. F. W. Merritt, L. G. Cook and C. H. A. Thomas were chosen as a committee to place in pairs of two to represent the church committees and make arrangements for filling the pulpit and to secure a new pastor.

—At the social at Dr. Orange's Thursday evening, the first meeting of the year, a very fair game was played, entitled "The Floral Love Story." In knowledge of love and flowers Miss Emma Hulley was easily the leader, winning a handsome prize. The game consists of conundrums, as for instance, "What did the King do?" and "What did the Queen do?" and so on. One song arranged to fit the game was "The Little Wanderer."

The Keynote of Many Head Coverings—Devices That Give Breadth to Toques.
When Tam O'Shares was a lad, his little brother would give a wide hat band year after year to the fashionable headgear of the women of the second and third generation. But this year the Tam O'Shares is the keynote of many head coverings. Made to wedge and bind with thick silk cord, it is converted into a bonnet, while its original form is maintained in velvet, cloth and felt.

smash by comparison with the finished article, and it is curious to note in the new toques what devices are resorted to to produce the required breadth over the forehead. The combination of many now bonnets are mere squares with the corners turned up in front, while the center is shaped into a acute point and the sides are rounded off.

The Servant Question.

GOOD morning, madam! Do you wish to engage a servant? One who is quick, willing, and faithful; who can lighten your household work wonderfully? Who will do the family washing in the best possible way and in the shortest time, and make the clothes more beautifully white and clean than any servant you ever had? One who is equally good at washing dishes, removing grease from cooking utensils, making paint bright and clean, scouring tinware, etc.

If you would like to engage me, just leave word at the grocers, and I will come right up. My name is

IVORINE WASHING POWDER

If you wish to inquire further about me, drop a line to THE J. B. WILLIAMS CO., Glastonbury, Conn., Makers of Williams' Famous Shaving Soaps, And they will send you hundreds of testimonials as to my abilities.

JOHN ALDEN'S DINNER

FRUGAL REAST OF A THANKSGIVING LONG AGO.

There Were A plenty For Divine Mercy—Escape of Masters From the Indians—Miss Standish's Victory—From a diary of 1630.

This year it pleased God of his rich grace to transport over into ye bay of Massachusetts divers honest people who had begun to plant in New England and who had of planting ye gospel in this remote and harbious wilderness and securing his own way through woods, casting aside so many difficulties thereof. Among ye rest, a chief one among them, was that raymon pattern or plain justice. Mr. Raymon was our first governor, a man verily accompanied with divers other persons, sons of John which might be compared to the fayre fayre of the world. Among them was John Wilson, eminent for his zeal. It pleased ye Lord to call him to his reward and he left this world being destitute of housing and shelter, and lying up and down in holes, some of them langished and others perished forever away.

Last spring there was a number of men who were sent to the land of new spiced tiles, which were called for by the Indians. They came out in little holes in ye ground, and did eat up ye green things, and made such a constant yell among them, that when known to the Indians, it fell into their hands, and they were not gathered, we can be thankful to ye Lord for his mercies.

It had been agreed with the Indians that we should witness to each other, and there have been divers and sundry special meetings held for this purpose of landing at ye Hudson river, as was intended, of itself a presidents Then made especially do we give thanks that at a part of ye day, when we have been free from the hollow, and that, when many of our godlike compaines have been taken away, through God's goodness, through the great afflictions.

And ye last presidents was but yesterday, when the four fowlers whom our general commander sent out for provision, were re-turn'd home again.

The fowlers had fallen into ye hands of the Indians, and hearing a sharp twang, an arrow sped through ye coat of William White. This was followed by another, and another, and every shot, some of which went through ye hats and hems of ye fowlers, but none was killed, and they returned with much glee.

They were held as ye hostes of Mystery.
